II: PROCEDURE

1. The LIMUN '26 delegate guidebook is available on the official LIMUN website
 - a. You will find rules of procedure which are relatively similar to THIMUN or OxfordMUN, we ask that you please make sure you are up to date
 - b. You will also find terminology

2. LIMUN procedure requests that you come with prepared clauses, though you will build off of a blank resolution, not a pre-written one

III: BEHAVIOR

(In delegation and in committee)

1. Generic but essential to the good proceedings of the debate: please remain respectful to all delegates and their delegations
2. Keep in mind that all delegates are, or should be, defending their country/union/organization's point of view, please debate accordingly
3. Even when giving a daring speech or response to a point of information, please remain civil, and use parliamentary language
4. In the event that you have any complaints::
 - a. In the case scenario where you have problems with someone in your committee, please report it to:
 - i. Your chairs
 - ii. The LIMUN Executive Team
 - iii. Your MUN Director.
 - b. In the scenario where your chairs are not calling on you, you should go speak to a member of the executive team or the chairs themselves
5. Please help each other out within the delegation/committee, remain constructive in your speeches and POIs

IV: PREPARATION

1. Preparation is key! Just like THIMUN and OxfordMUN, you have to come prepared to LIMUN: that includes research on the country/union/organization that you are representing, but most importantly clauses on the topic at hand
2. Know the policies of as many countries in your committee as possible, including, most importantly, yours
3. LIMUN gives out several awards per committee including:
 - a. Best delegate
 - b. Most promising delegate
4. When making a speech/clause/P.O.I. or in other forms of discussion, please make sure you represent your country/union/organization's point of view
5. When researching your country, here are the things you want to keep an eye out for:
 - a. System of governance
 - b. History (key moments)
 - c. Economy (particularly concerning the issue you're debating)
 - d. Social situation
 - e. Who are your friends/allies?
6. Here are a few helpful places/ things to research:
 - a. CIA Factbook: <https://www.cia.gov/the-world-factbook/>
 - b. Past United Nations resolutions (that have been voted):
<http://www.un.org/en/sections/documents/general-assembly-resolutions/>
 - c. The actual UN website dedicated to "you": <http://www.un.org/en/index.html>
 - d. Your country/union/organization's website
 - e. Your firepower: <https://www.globalfirepower.com>
7. Here are a few links that will help you improve as an MUNer:
